EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT AND REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with William Beaumont on November 4, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

45. (Currently amended) A process as claimed in claim 37, which produces a combined TCO product having substantially the same properties, except for a [hither] higher cetane number, as that of a TCO obtained from a conventional FCC unit operating in a distillate mode, by:

- a) changing a cut point of the TCO from the first riser to 120 - 370°C,
- b) processing a 370°C + [position] portion of the first riser product in [the] a second riser, and
- c) changing a cut point of the TCO from the second riser to 120 – 390°C.

IN THE ABSTRACT:

According to this invention, there is provided a process and apparatus for catalytic cracking of various petroleum based heavy feed stocks in the presence of solid zeolite catalyst and high pore size acidic components for selective bottom cracking and mixtures thereof, in multiple riser type continuously circulating fluidized bed reactors operated at different severities to produce high yield of middle distillates, in the range of 50-65 wt% of fresh feed.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not disclose or suggest a process which includes the cracking of the fraction from the first reactor in a second reactor and also includes the recycling of the fraction from the second reactor at a vertically displaced position lower than the position of introduction of the main feed. Also, the prior art of record does not disclose or suggest an apparatus that includes means for performing these steps.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
